Hi team Bravo,
My name is Jan van Speijk. 200 years ago I was the hero on a Dutch ship.
Belgium used to be part of the Netherlands. My task: To ensure that the Belgians do not revolt. The Netherlands is the boss.

CHARLIE

Only when the Germans found out that we were hiding, they had to leave the city for their own safety. But when the city was on fire, we had no other choice.

During the war, the Germans used to shoot at the Belgians who were hiding in the city. They were very brave and they helped the Belgians to stay alive.
